Abu Dhabi, UAE, October 25, 2021 – With temperatures in the UAE getting cooler, explorers can enjoy a stroll down the sprawling boardwalk that runs through the majestic mangroves at Jubail Mangrove Park (JMP), and discover all the activities that the park has on offer throughout the season with its open day event to be held on Friday, October 29.

Jubail Mangrove Park, which re-opened after the summer months in September, will be welcoming guests for its open day with an array of family-friendly activities which will be available throughout the winter period, making Jubail Mangrove Park the perfect day out for family and friends.

The park's specially trained rangers have resumed their educational tours, which focus on the historical significance of the mangroves, as well as wildlife native to Abu Dhabi that can be spotted within the lush natural habitat and crystal waters. New for 2021, Jubail Mangrove Park is calling little explorers across the UAE to join the trained rangers in learning about the importance of the natural eco-system with JMP's 'Become a Little Ranger' experience, available daily for those aged between 6-13 years old.

Guests can also enjoy a walk through the 2.3 km boardwalk to see a variety of terrestrial and aquatic flora and fauna, practice yoga or soundbites healing, as well as make the most of the park's famous kayaking experiences. Available at sunrise, sunset as well as at night and full moon, JMP's kayaking experiences offers guests the opportunity to see the park from a completely new perspective. Jubail's new kayak store is now open where guests can shop for their own kayaking gear including SUP, and Paddle board.

The Jubail Mangrove Park serves as an educational, natural and leisure destination aiming to enhance the awareness, appreciation and understanding of the important ecological function of the mangrove habitats that include protection of the Abu Dhabi Coastline and supporting biodiversity. Available during the open day on the 29 October, guests will have the chance to learn more about the fascinating mangrove forest with new activities including mangrove seeding and JMP's 'clean, conserve and protect mangroves' workshop.

Jubail Mangrove Park open day will welcome guests from 7am to 11pm (last entry at 10pm) and will be complete with food trucks, art workshops and yoga programs – the perfect way to spend the weekend in a fun filled and wellness environment.

As per the Abu Dhabi city guidelines, guests will require a green status on the Hosn app in order to enter the park.

A reservation to access the park is recommended, and guests are encouraged to visit the park during the high-tide for optimum viewing. For more information on bookings and tide forecasts, please visit:
