Adrian Pepe

Adrian Pepe is a fiber artist based in Beirut, Lebanon. His work focuses on craftsmanship from sociocultural, aesthetic, ecological and methodological perspectives. He studies the relational ties we form with objects over time. His integrated approach interweaves culture, history, and performance with design, fashion, and interiors. Throughout his work, he performs a sort of creative shadowgraphy, crafting objects and experiences as tools to enable an open discourse on materiality, our morphing cultural landscape, and present condition.

Chafa Ghaddar

Painter Chafa Ghaddar's explorations in the fresco technique reveal new conceptual possibilities within the historical method of mural painting. Anchoring her practice around this medium since 2010, Ghaddar experiments with mural processes and materials, introducing new creative, technical and stylistic exchange between stability and fragility, figuration and abstraction.

Omar Nakkash

Dubai designer Omar Nakkash cut his teeth at his family's acclaimed gallery, Nakkash, before moving to Milan to study interior design at the Scuola Politecnica di Design. He is currently working on several projects in the Middle East, from homes to hotels, illustrating his studio's human-centred approach. He follows in the footsteps of his father, Wajih, who founded the eponymous gallery in 1983, ushering the era of contemporary interiors in the region. Together, they celebrate the diversity and breadth of the current design scene, one exceptional project at a time.

Rawdha Ketbi

Rawdha Al Ketbi is an Emirati visual artist working in photography, mixed media and installation art. Her work predominantly focuses on found materials and memories distilled from abandoned places and objects. As a result, there is a poetic patina, an allusion to passing time that places her creations at the intersection of the past and the future. One of the UAE's most promising emerging artists, her work has been exhibited at many local galleries and art institutions.

Tamara Barrage

A Lebanese artist and designer based in Dubai, Tamara Barrage uses an array of experimental techniques, manipulating familiar materials to evoke unexpected, tactile and sensory characteristics. Her interest in materiality has led her to creating unusual, animated shapes imbued with big personalities and a sense of playfulness. These fantastical objects also reveal the fragility of her chosen media.
